Ms Ligwina Poerwo did the WAUFP (now WAUPP) in 1995. She was successful in progressing to a university course in commerce.

During her time in Perth, Wina made many good friends including her husband to be.

Since returning to Indonesia she has had a number of positions and is now operating her own successful financial services company. She has also been busy raising a family.

" I cherish my days spent studying in Australia. I didn't just learn about academic, actually the most important is the social and communication skills. My Year 12 in Perth was not easy. But teachers shaped me into the person I am today. I learned to be independent, articulate and developed analytical skills."
